

The Truth is

What my Heart wants to say

The Truth is

The Truth is
- What my Heart wants to say -

Maybe I'm just a naive person hunting after a stupid dream believing in unbelievable things making mistakes again and again hurting persons that I love.

But never forget:
I'm just a human like you all,
searching for the one who loves me like I am.
Even though my words may sound strange they're just what I think, what I believe in.

I wish I was able to tell you the truth about my heart.
I beg you pardon!
Perhaps I'll be able to tell you "I love you!" sometime...
