

Sleep Sugar

Von Last_Tear

Prolog: Frozen

Don't you know
I'm never coming back home
My mind is in a place
you don't know

My body is safe here
And I will sleep
Eternal slumber
To keep memories awake

I loved and I lost
But I'll never come back home
I stumbled and I fell
Down the trail

Leaving my old life behind
I'm never coming home again
My heart never played along
Reminding me what I lost everyday

I can feel your sorrow
You won't forgive me,
but I know you'll be all right
It tears me apart that you will never know but I have to let go

He's haunting my dreamworld
Trying to survive
I tried to forget him
But he's always on my mind

I tried to struggle
Now I give in Closing my eyes
Surrender to the silence inside

See the butterflies are dancing
Intoxicating and entwining
Singing a lullaby
You'll never hear
Will you still love me in the end?
I'm sorry
But I will never come back home
